MONTAGUE.

Have you got your turkey ready? Jim has returned. He didn't fill the bill.

One of our local hunters has 49 woodcock in his credit.

Messrs. Manly Crane, Sidney and Edward Bevans, of Branchville, with John Kite, of this town, managed to kill 8 rabbits, 4 pheasants, 2 gray squirrels and one blacksnake in one day's hunt in Montague. Who says there is no game here?

That much talked about suit which was to come off last Thursday afternoon before Squire Fuller at Hainesville didn't come off much to the disappointment of the large crowd which had assembled to listen to an eloquent plea by the plaintiff, Wilton Bennett, Esq., of Port Jervis. Of course Wilton was there, so was Lawrence Hotalen, of Montague, the defendant. Montague's only constable was there and so was the jury. But the parties never stood concluded to settle. Mr. Bennett accepting five dollars (one half of his claim). The squirrel took one half of his costs and the constable took 75 cents for which he has served the summons drawn a jury and made two trips to Hainesville. Wonder how much he made after paying his expenses and keeping his horse. Although the crowd was disappointed in not having a lawsuit, all hands managed to have a good time. Newspaper correspondents were there in plenty, New Jersey Herald, Register, PIKE COUNTY PRESS, Gazette, and Recorder being represented. I didn't see the independent man. The following were drawn to serve as jurors: Moses Gunnison, James Black, Ed. Jager, Wm. Vaness, Price Westbrook and Eugene Hursb. There not being any trial, the boys only got 15 cents and spent —

Wm. Padgett, of Mill Rift, the Pride of Pike county, snake charmer, etc., will give a series of entertainments over here this week. In my next I will tell you all about his show.

The farm of the late Chas. E. North at Millville has been rented by a Mr. Stidd, of Port Jervis. Mr. Stidd expects to keep boarders.

When people come way from Sullivan county down here to our mill it must be a sign we have a good miller.

The time is here for killing porkers and the next question is, who can tell the biggest lie about the hog's weight?

In so much as the editor of the Press doesn't seem to feel inclined to ask any of us fellows over here to go to Milford to a game supper we will have to accept the first invitation we get from somewhere else?

That queer little feeling some one was troubled with a short time ago seems to have worn away. We have found out the cause of the complaint! And have also found out that the cause was trying to bleed without a full hand.

Our town fathers (town committee) have concluded to hold their next meeting at the Big House in place of Tappanville on Saturday, December 4th. The change will be a welcome one to most of the people who have business with the honorably as there are accommodations at the Brick House for man and beast.

The price of rent for the Montague polling room for election seems to have gone up. Twenty-five dollars says the item in our county papers.

Our old friend, E. de Saligues, former owner of the Springdale farm here, but now a resident of Keppert, N. J., kindly remembered as the other day with a few pictures of local residents. The joke is good.

These smart chaps who abused a Montague property owner so shamefully a few days ago because he ordered them off his premises overtook the mark. Better come and settle with him it will be cheaper.

Fred Kerr and John Everett are the traverse jurors from this town for the December term of court.

Jake McCarty while driving cornstalks from his island the other day, split himself stalks and little Joe into the Hensel-kill. Rather late to be baptized.

Bicycle riders should be careful when trying to coast down the Brick House hill. One tried it the other day, smashed his wheel, scratched his face and tore his clothes.

Having been very busy the past week I am not able to tell anything about the deliberations of the town committee. Gut nacht. Dick.

LAYTON.

Some mischievous person, or persons knowing that Frank Clark sometimes left his bicycle in the school house over night, gained an entrance to the room, and badly slit the tire and also cut some of the spokes. Just punishment should be meted out to the culprits if discovered.

Albert S. Rosenkrans of Lynchburg, Va is spending a month among friends and relatives in the neighborhood. Bert is one of the crack laundrymen of Lynchburg, and if any one is seeking points on steam laundry work they should interview him, and get thoroughly posted.

The stock argument against the game laws is that game gets scarcer every year. No one who has seen the loads of game killed in this valley this season should think of using that argument again until there is something to justify it.

The many friends of Edgar J. Wright formerly manager of the Sussex Telephone company will be glad to hear that he is leading a very busy life in Brooklyn.

giving evening which was well attended and thoroughly enjoyed.

Wonder why Daisy Bell interfered with us up here. The boys deserved a dressing out. Germantown girls are not disturbed as to whether it sounds well or not. They will be prepared at any time to take their own part. DAVEY.

MATAMORAS.

A concert and social was given by the young people of St. Joseph's Church Nov. 22nd at the church hall. A very attractive programme was arranged, consisting of vocal and instrumental music. Refreshments were served by the ladies.

A chicken supper took place Tuesday night, Nov. 23rd, at the home of Mrs. Charles Snyder. The Ladies Aid Society of the Epworth Church gave the supper.

A very pleasing service was held at Epworth Sunday night. The C. E. Society conducted the services. The singing under Mr. Bizzard's instruction was of a high order. Rev. F. G. Curtis, the pastor, gave a fine address to the young people.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hamann and daughter, Alice, of Montague, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hillman.

Mrs. Calvin Jenkins, of Jersey City, visited friends at this place Friday and Saturday.

Mrs. D. Bugbee and daughter, have returned home after a two weeks' visit with her sister at Brooklyn, Pa.

The home of J. P. Knapp to which an addition has recently been added and fresh-works improved is now receiving a fresh coat of paint which greatly adds to the beauty of the uptown property of Matamoras.

The work on the new home of W. F. Spedel has so far progressed as to have the roof on and to be enclosed.

Contractor Raymond is doing the work and when completed it will add greatly to the value of our real estate.

Dozers are circulated around the village notifying our local sports that there will be a shooting match. Thanksgiving day at Maurice Quinn's Half-Way House at targets, clay pigeons and live birds. The shooting will be for prizes.

The great fair held by the Ladies' Christian Union of Hope church closed Friday night in a blaze of glory. The program Thursday night was a decided success, all the little ones showing the results of the great care and pains which Mr. and Mrs. Spedel had taken in their training.

The fair was held in the large spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rose on Washington street.

Friday night's program opened with a piano duet by Mrs. Spedel and Laura Seymor. The second number was "O'Connell's Mistake," a laughable farce with John Pherson as "Pat" and Mrs. K. Kilpatrick as "Biddy." Rockwell Heldenthal as "Judge," and George Martin, another Irish character. The parts were well taken and were the features of the evening.

Next came a selection by the Nonpartisan Mandolin club.

Next was a recitation by Lissie Van Wormer of Port Jervis.

A vocal trio by Messrs Spedel, Corwin and Rev. J. A. Wiegand gave much pleasure.

The piano duet by Mrs. Spedel and Maggie Prescott was charmingly rendered.

Dialogue, "Society for the Suppression of Scandal." Ladies took part in this dialogue and it afforded lots of fun for the audience.

The piano and violin duet by Frank Wilkin and Laura Seymour was finely executed.

Selection by Mandolin Club.

The dialogue on "Female Philosophy or the Deacon's Wife" was rendered by five ladies of the society and was very amusing.

Another selection was given by the N. M. club and then came one of the features of the evening, "The Darky Wedding" which was skilfully produced by the following characters:

Minister—Mr. Emmet Abers. Bridegroom—Mr. Rockwell Heldenthal. Bride—Miss Julia Bink.

The wedding march from Lohengrin was played by N. M. club. A number of other selections given by the Mandolin club concluded the program.

The entire receipts for the two evenings obtained from the sale of the fancy work, candy, etc., was nearly $150 which will greatly increase the funds of the treasury of the W. C. U.

Thursday night the affair consisted chiefly of a kindergarten entertainment and a great deal of credit is due Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Spedel for their efficient work in training the children.

There was also a sale of fancy articles on Thursday evening.

KIMBLES.

W. R. Smith, of Rowlands, made a business call here last Thursday.

Miss Lucy Miller, of Paterson, visited her sister, Mrs. Goodman last week.

Lana Kelly has gone for a two weeks' visit with friends in New York and Brooklyn.

The Phebe Reister property was sold at administrator sale last Saturday, Mrs. A. W. McKown becoming the purchaser.

The Euchre Club had an oyster supper and dance at J. L. Pierson Friday evening. All reports a good time. The out of town guests were: Miss Rowland and wife, of Rowlands, Miss Saddle Kade, of Honesdale, Miss Lou Rolason, of Notch.

(FROM ANOTHER CORRESPONDENT.)

E. Kimble has returned from a ten days hunting trip. He had a good time and killed two deer and considerable small game.

Miss Sadie Kade, of Honesdale, has opened a music class here. She is a fine musician and deserves success.

E. Kimble has completed his lake which is a great improvement to the appearance of his place.

Master Horton Kimble spent his vacation hunting and killed a fine rabbit.

Miss Lou Rolason, of Notch, is visiting her sister.

GREELEY.

Tuesday morning we found about four inches of the beautiful, and as it came up and down the wind took all next day to turn it over, which made it unpleasant for those who had to face the music. It came just in time for hunters to track deer before the season closes. Hon. Lafe Rowland and Nelson Whit took a fine deer home with them Saturday from their camp. The party camping on the Well's place have not met with much luck besides losing their best dog.

Ira Rosenance has a number of hunters and more coming from New York and New Jersey.

Mr. Adams has finished sawing and returned to his home.

The shooting match at Greeley Club House Nov. 1st was largely attended and the lucky ones went home happy.

Those who patronized the ball report a good time. Dancing was the order until the wee small hours.

Miss Anna Remson gave her school a week's vacation. She is at her home in Lackawanna practicing her part with others for an entertainment to be given at the Epworth House Saturday evening for the benefit of Rev. Mitchell, the Baptist minister, and Rev. Hanton, M. E. minister at Rowlands. Every one is cordially invited to aid the good work by being present.

Edwarg Kochka and Ernest Goetz gave up their stone quarry as it did not turn out satisfactorily.

Where is Golden Rod No. 2? Perhaps the cold weather is too severe for her, but No. 1 is all right, aw!

W. V. Burcher killed two very large porkers this week.

George Polton and wife and John Simons and wife spent Sunday with Ira B. Rosenance. George announces himself a candidate for postmaster at the coming election.

George Hartwell drove some cattle to Wayne Co. last week for W. V. Burcher. DAVEY BELL.

SHOHOLA.

The weather is cold and with four inches of snow, quite wintry.

Only two bids were sent in for carrying the mail from Shohola to Walker's Lake. Chas. Haas spent two days last week visiting friends in Milford.

Peter Hess and wife visited Walker's Lake Sunday.

William Went is a very happy man on account of a little girl that came to stay with him.

E. S. Wolf has moved his steam mill from Dr. Lung's lot to one of Desaix Knapp about two miles from Parker's Glen where he has bought a large tract of timber.

George Beland has made great improvements on his farm this summer, clearing it of stone and brush and is now building a large barn.

Next came a selection by the Nonpartisan Mandolin club.

Next was a recitation by Lissie Van Wormer of Port Jervis.

A vocal trio by Messrs Spedel, Corwin and Rev. J. A. Wiegand gave much pleasure.

The piano duet by Mrs. Spedel and Maggie Prescott was charmingly rendered.
